AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING TITLE 41 "THE NEWARK ZONING AND LAND USE REGULATIONS" TO ADD THE DIETZE BUILDING, WHICH IS LOCATED AT 60-64 UNION STREET, BLOCK 185, LOT 68, AS A HISTORIC LANDMARK WITHIN THE CITY OF NEWARK, NEW JERSEY (East Ward).

WHEREAS, the Historic Preservation Element of the Master Plan of the City of Newark recognizes the importance of Historic Sites in the City; and

WHEREAS, any interested party may nominate a historic landmarks or district for local designation pursuant to the City of Newark revised general Ordinance, Title 41 Chapter 10; and

WHEREAS, in 1890, machinist Lewis H. Watson built, what is commonly known as "The Dietze Building," which is located at 60-64 Union Street, Block 185, Lot 68 (between Ferry Street and Lafayette Street) in the Ironbound section of the City of Newark (the "Property"); and

WHEREAS, in 1927, the Property was damaged by fire, then acquired and reconstructed by the Dietze Realty Corporation with architect Charles F. Ackerman as the architect of record; and

WHEREAS, the Property appears today in similar condition as it was when it originally built in the 1890's; and

WHEREAS, Anker West, Ceramics and Architecture (the "Applicant") submitted an application to the Newark Landmarks and Historic Preservation Committee to consider designating the Property as a Historic Landmark within the City of Newark; and

WHEREAS, on July 16, 2014, the Applicant was heard by the Newark Landmarks and Historic Preservation Committee regarding the request to designate the Property as a Historic Landmark; and

WHEREAS, on July 16, 2014, the Newark Landmarks and Historic Preservation Committee approved of the request to designate the Property as a Historic Landmark and referred the matter to the Central Planning Board for its review and consideration; and

WHEREAS, on September 28, 2015, a public hearing was held by the Central Planning Board regarding the request to designate the Property as a Historic Landmark; and

WHEREAS, after weighing the findings, expert testimony, and testimony of the public, the Central Planning Board approved of the Historic Landmark designation for the Property and referred the matter to the Municipal Council of the City of Newark (the "Council") for the Council's review and consideration.
